PHILLIPS Counseling Center

Comic Expressions:

A therapeutic group for teens with Aspergers

This cognitive behavioral program will help your teen safely access their anxieties and fears, expressing and resolving difficult feelings through the creation of biographical comics.

Skilled PHILLIPS Programs licensed therapists will work with your teen in a small group setting. They will use proven and enjoyable methods adapted from Dr. Tony Attwood's therapeutic curriculum for individuals with Aspergers syndrome.

Each group meets for five 90 minute sessions, Monday through Friday. Snacks and materials included.

When: Group 1: July 6 to 10, 2009; 2:00 - 3:30PM
Group 2: July 13 to 17, 2009; 2:00 - 3:30PM

Where: PHILLIPS Programs for Children & Families

Who: Angela Gannon, LCSW & Randi Bane, LCSW

Fees: Please call for information on price and availability. This service is eligible for reimbursement through many insurance plans and employer-sponsored Health Savings Accounts.

Groups will fill quickly! Call now to reserve space for your teen.
